

● The RDC-IAB provides access to German labor market data to researchers at organizations in multiple countries

● The Stanford-SFUSD Partnership links one research institution and one data provider

● OLDA partners with researchers at multiple institutions and with a variety of data providers within the state of Ohio

● DIME works with diverse data globally, with a highly specialized internal research team